Dave Sakrison of St. Francis Episcopal Church accepts a box of toilet paper that was donated by the Moab Rotary Club, which is starting a “neighbors helping neighbors” movement in response to the coronavirus outbreak. The club purchased 480 rolls of toilet paper and also donated rolls to Seekhaven, Moab Valley Multicultural Center and the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints stake house. Each case was labeled “Neighbors Helping Neighbors.”